

GOintegro is Latin America's leading HR social platform.

We streamline internal communications and strengthen the positive impact of company culture with cloud-based applications: Recognition, Corporate Benefits, Flexible Benefits and Incentives.

Every internal initiative. One platform.

GOintegro channels all HR initiatives and communications, creating the main arena for employee-company interaction.

GOintegro is cloud technology

An easy-to-use, cloud-based platform readily accessible by all employees from any Internet-connected device.

Social, collaborative, and flexible.

Content applications help promote all kinds of company content: news, galleries, video, employee anniversaries, new hires and more. An optional enterprise social network helps foster coworker interaction and collaboration.

User-friendly. Admin-friendly.

GOintegro brings companies the same kind of apps employees use in their everyday lives.

GOintegro offers a wide range of features.

Special branding.

A special brand is developed for the platform, in order to encourage coworkers' sense of belonging.

Public and private spaces.

Creation of open spaces, accessible by all users, or private ones, based on departments or common-interest groups.

Communication tools.

Sharing of corporate content, news, birthdays, events, pictures and videos to invigorate communication.

User profiles and directory.

Employees can edit their personal info and review their comments history, group memberships and shared files.

Enterprise social network.

An optional feature to help encourage collaboration, create new relationships and decentralize communication.

Email notifications.

An automated email delivery system notifies each user's social activity and is fully configurable according to individual preferences.

Reports and stats.

Generation of registration and navigation statistics of great value to the HR department.

Mobile app.

Access to the platform and all its features from any location. Available for iPhone and Android.

The best Apps
